

Engadine Triathlon Club

July 2014 Newsletter

I hope that everyone is enjoying a relaxing 'off' season, and participating in one of the many great running races/festivals that come up at this time of year. Good luck in particular to all that are competing at the Sutherland to Surf on the weekend.

I've had the privilege of being Engadine Tri Club President for 6 months now, and it occurs to me that this is my first email update, so a bit to get through.

Presentation Night

I'm pleased to advise that the ETC presentation night will be held on Saturday 16th August at St Moritz (Engadine Tavern).

We look forward to seeing as many of you there as possible as we celebrate the season past and look ahead to the new season.

The cost for the night, starting at 6.30pm, is $50 per person, and this includes Buffet Dinner and Desert, as well as red and white wine.

Please RSVP and send payment for the night to club treasurer Greg Thompson:

GOAT Ride and Blue Ribbon Run

Two of the timeless Engadine Tri Club awards are up for grabs in coming weeks with the GOAT Ride and the Blue Ribbon run.

For those who haven't been involved in these before, the GOAT ride is the 4.5 odd km climb up McKell Avenue at Waterfall – not for the faint hearted. Last year's winner Wayne Smart could prove tough to beat again this year. The ride will be held on Saturday morning, 26 July.

The Blue Ribbon run is an 8km loop through and around Engadine, with awards going to the fastest male and female for the course. It will again be held on the morning of the presentation evening, 16 August.

See the website and/or Facebook for further details/updates closer to the date.
