March 2015 Newsletter

Happy autumn to everyone!

Summer really raced by didn't it. Sadly, days are getting shorter, and there's just a hint of cool in the air first thing in the mornings.

Plenty more races to come though before the season finishes, starting with Engadine Tri Club's Triathlon No. 3 on Saturday morning at 6.45am.

Other big races coming up, and those which contribute to the Club Triathlete of the Year award include:

- Kurnell Race Number 4, April 19
- Port Macquarie Ironman, May 3
- NSW Club Champs Forster, May 16 (double points)

Speaking of club champs, just a reminder that we are hoping for a big turnout again this year. I know Cronulla are pushing hard with this too, and it promises to be a great weekend away. So far, we only have six people signed up, but I know there are more that I have spoken to who intend on going – don't forget to sign up soon. No excuses this year with the race now featuring after Port.

A reminder too that volunteers do not have to be club members – they can be friends or family. They just need to choose our club when they are registering. A great way for family members coming up for the weekend to get involved, and earn points for the club.

For any previous members, or new/prospective members, there is currently a special discount being applied for the remainder of the season. Triathlon Australia membership has been reduced 40% until 30 May. We can also apply the same discount for ETC membership.

The committee for 2015 was elected at the AGM/Pub Run in late December, as follows:

Jay Kennedy, President
Greg Thompson, Treasurer
Warwick Terry, Secretary
Stephen Tudjman, Race Director
Stephen Tudjman, Training Co-Ordinator
Leigh Gilbert, Uniforms
Laurel Rogers, Committee
Kim Tudjman, General
John Hammerslag, General
Social Sub-Committee: Rachel Kennedy & Kim Tudjman

The social committee is currently working on some ideas to get the club together in a more informal setting on a more frequent basis.

Before signing off, I wanted to say a big thank you to Greg and Warwick in particular for organising, as well as all the volunteers who spent their time at the Lion's Club markets at Engadine Square on Sunday morning. It was greatly appreciated!
